DARE TO EXCEL

Namdang or the 'House of Spartans' is an entity that embodies honesty, hard work and dedication towards its activities within School and the Community at large. A boy from Namdang is expected to be organized, productive and one that works towards turning into a young gentleman, along with achieving all that he can achieve in the fields of Academia, Sports and Culture. We are pleased with all that the House has achieved in these three pillars of the School this Semester.
